LEASE AGREEMENT

MEDICAL OFFICE LEASE AGREEMENT

This Lease consists of the General Provisions on the following pages, the Summary Form that follows them, and any Rider attached at the end. If the Summary Form and the General Provisions conflict, the Summary Form controls; a Rider controls over both.

Prepared from the Landlord's standard form. Blanks are completed on the Summary Form only.

ARTICLE 1 - DEFINITIONS

Capitalized terms used in this Lease have the meanings given on the Summary Form. References to Rent include Base Rent and all Additional Rent payable by Tenant.

Tenant shall comply with all laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to its use of the Premises, including those governing medical waste, radiation equipment and patient privacy, at Tenant's sole cost.

Landlord shall maintain the roof, foundation, structural elements and common areas of the Building. Tenant shall maintain the interior of the Premises in good order and repair.

Tenant shall carry commercial general liability and errors-and-omissions policies in amounts reasonably required by Landlord and shall deliver certificates before occupancy.

If the Premises are damaged by fire or other casualty, Landlord shall restore them within a reasonable time, and Rent shall abate in proportion to the area that cannot be used.

ARTICLE 2 - USE AND COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

Tenant shall comply with all laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to its use of the Premises, including those governing medical waste, radiation equipment and patient privacy, at Tenant's sole cost.

Landlord shall maintain the roof, foundation, structural elements and common areas of the Building. Tenant shall maintain the interior of the Premises in good order and repair.

Tenant shall carry commercial general liability and errors-and-omissions policies in amounts reasonably required by Landlord and shall deliver certificates before occupancy.

If the Premises are damaged by fire or other casualty, Landlord shall restore them within a reasonable time, and Rent shall abate in proportion to the area that cannot be used.

If any part of the Building is taken by eminent domain so that the Premises cannot reasonably be used, either party may terminate this Lease by written notice.

ARTICLE 3 - UPKEEP OF THE PREMISES

Landlord shall maintain the roof, foundation, structural elements and common areas of the Building. Tenant shall maintain the interior of the Premises in good order and repair.

Tenant shall carry commercial general liability and errors-and-omissions policies in amounts reasonably required by Landlord and shall deliver certificates before occupancy.

If the Premises are damaged by fire or other casualty, Landlord shall restore them within a reasonable time, and Rent shall abate in proportion to the area that cannot be used.

If any part of the Building is taken by eminent domain so that the Premises cannot reasonably be used, either party may terminate this Lease by written notice.

Tenant is in default if it fails to pay Rent within ten days after notice, or fails to cure any other breach within thirty days after notice. Landlord may then pursue any remedy available at law or in equity.

ARTICLE 4 - POLICIES OF COVER AND INDEMNITY

Tenant shall carry commercial general liability and errors-and-omissions policies in amounts reasonably required by Landlord and shall deliver certificates before occupancy.

If the Premises are damaged by fire or other casualty, Landlord shall restore them within a reasonable time, and Rent shall abate in proportion to the area that cannot be used.

If any part of the Building is taken by eminent domain so that the Premises cannot reasonably be used, either party may terminate this Lease by written notice.

Tenant is in default if it fails to pay Rent within ten days after notice, or fails to cure any other breach within thirty days after notice. Landlord may then pursue any remedy available at law or in equity.

This Lease is subordinate to any mortgage now or later placed on the Building, provided the mortgagee agrees not to disturb Tenant's possession while Tenant is not in default.

ARTICLE 5 - CASUALTY AND CONDEMNATION

If the Premises are damaged by fire or other casualty, Landlord shall restore them within a reasonable time, and Rent shall abate in proportion to the area that cannot be used.

If any part of the Building is taken by eminent domain so that the Premises cannot reasonably be used, either party may terminate this Lease by written notice.

Tenant is in default if it fails to pay Rent within ten days after notice, or fails to cure any other breach within thirty days after notice. Landlord may then pursue any remedy available at law or in equity.

This Lease is subordinate to any mortgage now or later placed on the Building, provided the mortgagee agrees not to disturb Tenant's possession while Tenant is not in default.

Notices shall be in writing and delivered by hand, by overnight courier or by certified mail to the addresses of the parties as Landlord and Tenant may designate in writing.

ARTICLE 6 - DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

If any part of the Building is taken by eminent domain so that the Premises cannot reasonably be used, either party may terminate this Lease by written notice.

Tenant is in default if it fails to pay Rent within ten days after notice, or fails to cure any other breach within thirty days after notice. Landlord may then pursue any remedy available at law or in equity.

This Lease is subordinate to any mortgage now or later placed on the Building, provided the mortgagee agrees not to disturb Tenant's possession while Tenant is not in default.

Notices shall be in writing and delivered by hand, by overnight courier or by certified mail to the addresses of the parties as Landlord and Tenant may designate in writing.

This Lease binds and benefits the parties and their permitted successors and assigns. Waiver of one breach is not a waiver of any later breach of the same or another term.

ARTICLE 7 - SUBORDINATION, NOTICES AND GENERAL TERMS

Tenant is in default if it fails to pay Rent within ten days after notice, or fails to cure any other breach within thirty days after notice. Landlord may then pursue any remedy available at law or in equity.

This Lease is subordinate to any mortgage now or later placed on the Building, provided the mortgagee agrees not to disturb Tenant's possession while Tenant is not in default.

Notices shall be in writing and delivered by hand, by overnight courier or by certified mail to the addresses of the parties as Landlord and Tenant may designate in writing.

This Lease binds and benefits the parties and their permitted successors and assigns. Waiver of one breach is not a waiver of any later breach of the same or another term.

Capitalized terms used in this Lease have the meanings given on the Summary Form. References to Rent include Base Rent and all Additional Rent payable by Tenant.
